with

Dr Kathleen McGarvey, OLA

We have much to learn from the collective wisdom that missionaries bring back with them on returning to their place or church of origin. Many of the dynamics that were dealt with 'elsewhere' are now evident 'here' in a rapidly changing Ireland.

The dynamics of inculturation ad gentes are precisely what we need to appropriate and learn about in terms of new evangelisation in our Irish situation, so the focus of this day will be on the wisdom, insights and practices missionaries bring to the Irish context in light of their work overseas.

Members of missionary movements, religious congregations, associations of lay faithful, Christian organisations and other parish groups are invited to take part in conversations, round table discussions, and other interactive moments on the day!

Advance Booking is Essential!
